SPECTACLES OF THE BEST MAKE—ALL SIZES [illegible] at CHARLES BARRETT'S

LATER FROM THE EAST.

ST. LOUIS, July 26.—Considerable excitement existed yesterday at the British Consul's office, in consequence of a large number of persons claiming the protection of the British flag to exempt them from enrollment in the militia under the recent order of Gen. Schofield. Several claimants having permanent business here were severely handled by the crowd. Numerous arrests were made. A detachment of the Provost Guard was ordered out, and the disturbance was suppressed.

FORTRESS MONROE, July 25.—The sailing vessels, schooners, etc., which have been lying up the James river near James Island, for some time, have within a few days dropped down the river and anchored in the Roads just above this point. The cause of this move is not ascertained.

WASHINGTON, July 26.—Specials to the New York papers say: "It has been known to the military authorities ever since the cavalry expedition to Beaver Dam, that the enemy are sending some of the best troops of Longstreet's, Pillow's and Ewell's divisions to join Jackson between Gordonsville and Staunton. It is not believed, however, that Jackson's whole force numbers over 30,000. His purpose is thought to be to push up the Shenandoah valley, and if practicable, to invade Maryland."

A dispatch from Chicago states that a late Charleston Courier says the Conscription Law is being fully enforced.

Two hundred and forty persons took the oath at Memphis July 22d. One hundred and twenty received permits to go South.

CAIRO, July 26.—The steamer Evansville, from the Tennessee river, brings news of a rebel raid on Florence, Alabama. On Tuesday last they entered the city, burned all the warehouses used for Commissary and Quartermaster's stores, and all the cotton they could find in the country, seized the United States steamer Colona, took all the money belonging to the boats passengers and then burned her. The property destroyed is said to be of great value. A small detachment of Mitchell's army was captured. The rebels then proceeded down the Tennessee river to Chickasaw and Waterloo, and burned all the warehouses containing cotton.

A German printer, who worked for several months in offices in New Orleans, Richmond and other places South, has arrived here. He represents the Germans of the South as, to a man, in favor of the Union. He also confirms the report that four rebel divisions are stationed along the railroad from Staunton to Gordonsville and at Louisa Courthouse. Their pickets extend to New Market, and their course appears to be up the valley.

An expedition sent some days since to Helena, Arkansas, to investigate the report that General Price had [illegible] Arkansas, has returned, and report [illegible] enemy had crossed in considerable [illegible] and taken with them twenty-five pieces of artillery of various sizes. It is supposed their intention to reinforce Hindman.

Gen. Curtis was forbidden to purchase cotton near his command, that article being in the hands of secessionists.

The reported capture of the gunboat Arkansas is not yet confirmed.

Henderson, Kentucky, has been re-occupied by the Federals. All the guerrillas but two escaped.

The Texas Government has issued orders to every family to leave Galveston, it having been determined to defend it to the last. The order was complied with, except by 7 families. These were suspected of being disloyal to the Confederacy, and their houses searched, when the Stars and Stripes were discovered concealed, with the intention to hang them out should the Federals take the city. Those guilty of this treason were taken out and hung.

CAIRO, July 25.—Henderson, Kentucky, has been re-occupied by the Federals. Of the guerrillas, but two escaped.

Coleridge says, "The happiness of life is made up of minute fractions, the little, soon forgotten charities of a kiss or a smile, a kind look, a heart felt compliment, and the countless infinitesimals of pleasurable thoughts and genial feeling.

MONDAY MORNING, AUGUST 4, 1862

Oregon State Fair.

We continue our notice of the premiums offered for various stock and articles by the Oregon Agricultural Society, to be paid at the State Fair, to be held at Salem, commencing on the last Tuesday of September next.

The sheep interest is a great one now in Oregon, and from the certainty that wool and mutton will always find a fair market, it must rapidly increase in importance. The premiums are liberal. We think there is an error in the premium offered for wool. What we desire is, to bring the fine wools into competition with each other. We desire to ascertain which of all the kinds of fine wooled sheep, to-wit: Saxons, Australians, French or Spanish Merinoes, give the best wool and the largest fleeces. And the same facts we desire to learn by comparing the wool of the South Down and graded sheep—known as middle wooled sheep. The Cotswold is a long wooled sheep, and the wool cannot come into fair competition with others. There is an error in the premium list in this case, if we understand it. There should be, in our judgment, three premiums on wools, and no more. These would refer to the three varieties—fine wool, middle wool, and long wool.

Class III. Sheep, Swine, Poultry.

No. 22—Saxons.—Best buck, 2 yrs old and upward $10; 2d best, $5; 1 yr old, $5; 2d best, $3. Best ewe and lamb $5, 2d best, $3. Best three lambs, $5, 2d best $3. Best sample of wool, not less than 1 lbs, $3; 2d best, $2.

No. 23—Australians. Same premiums as No. 21.

No. 21—[illegible] pish Merinos. Same premiums as Nos. 21 and 22.

No. 24—French Merinos. Same premiums as Nos. 21, and 22.

No. 25—[illegible]owns. Same premiums as Nos. 21, 22, 23 and 24.

No. 26—Cotswolds. Same premiums as Nos. 21, 22, 23, 24 and 25.

No. 27—Graded Sheep.—Best buck, $5; 2d best $3. Best ewe, $3; 2d best, $2.

No. 28—Fat Sheep—Best pair of wethers, $5, 2d best, $3; ewes, $5, 2d best $3; lambs, $3; 2d best, $2.

No. 29. Best shepherd's dog, $5.

[illegible] Swine, we are informed that there are [illegible] varieties in Oregon. In England, [illegible] pains has been taken to improve the [illegible] of hogs—the object being to secure a [illegible] which will mature in a year's time, grow [illegible]ge, make fine pork, cut up well, and possess a disposition readily to fatten. Among the late importations, the improved Berkshire is supposed to be one of the best, if not the best English variety. In the States, the Chester White, a variety that originated in Pennsylvania several years ago, and since greatly perfected by careful breeding, is reckoned one of the best hogs. The Suffolk is a beautiful hog, [illegible] very tender, requiring careful treatment. [illegible] suppose there are other varieties in Oregon [illegible] great value. We trust that the various [illegible]milies, including the alligator breed, [illegible] be represented at Salem.

No. 30—Swine.—Best boar, 2 yrs old and upward $10; 2d best, $5; 1 yr old, $5; 2d best, $4; 6 months, and not 1 yr old, $5; 2d best, $3. Best sow, 2 yrs old and upward $5; 2d best, $4, 1 yr old, $5; 2d best $3; 6 mos and not 1 yr old, $4; 2d best, $2. Best lot of not less than 6 pigs under 6 months, $5; 2d best, $3.

An examination of the census returns will astonish, most persons in regard to the value of poultry in the United States. No farmer is without the common domestic fowl. It furnishes him with the most delicate food, and the eggs and fowls sold from farms make up a large item of their profits. The dunghill fowl now found on farms, in most cases, is a mixture of all varieties; and though paying well, they are by no means as prolific in eggs—a great object—as many varieties which have been kept pure by careful breeding.

The list of Dunghill Fowls for which the Society has offered premiums, is quite extensive, and we doubt very much if they can be found in the State. We hope that if any of the choice varieties have been brought to Oregon, we shall see them at the Fair. We venture to say that they would sell there at high prices. The full blooded Poland, Spanish, Batton Grays and Gold Lace Bantams, are beautiful.

No. 31—Poultry. Dunghill Fowls.—A premium of $2 on the 1st best and $1 on 2d do is offered for the following varieties of fowls: Best lot of white dorkings 1 cock and 2 hens, gray or speckled, black Spanish, white Polands black do., golden do., silver do., red or buff Shanghai, white do., gold lace bantams, silver do., Bolton grays, Brahma Pootra, Cochin China, other foreign variety, native not less than 6 turkeys, best lot 1 cock and 2 hens; ducks—1 drake and 2 hens; geese—1 pair common, Bremen, white China, brown do., wild grays; swine—1 pair white; Guinea fowls—best lot, Pea fowls—best lot, best lot and greatest variety.

No. 32—Rabbits. Best pair common white $2; 2d best, $1; lop-eared, $2, 2d best, $1.

Farmers who have fine fowls and who are willing to dispose of them, would be likely to find a ready market at the Fair.

"OBSERVER."—We publish in this number the eleventh and last communication from our intelligent correspondent "Observer," who has furnished us with many interesting and well written accounts from Salmon river and the mining regions of the east and north generally. We return our grateful thanks to our excellent friend, only regretting that we can not longer be favored with mining news from his ready pen. We sincerely hope that he may long enjoy the blessings of rest and comfort, the smiles of loving eyes, and a peace that knows no sorrow. And should he ever go roaming again, we shall expect to hear from him and the result of his observations; but should he never go roaming again, we hope to receive an occasional line from him anyhow.

To the Patrons of the Daily Oregonian.

As will be observed by this issue, we have again enlarged the size of the DAILY OREGONIAN, and it is with much pleasure and sincere thanks we announce that the patronage which we have received enables us thus to enlarge its size, increase its advantages and improve its mechanical appearance. Just eighteen months ago to day, we commenced the publication of the DAILY OREGONIAN, which at that time was but an experiment, as the prospects for sustaining a daily paper was somewhat doubtful, from the fact that two other dailies had already [illegible] the comparatively small amount of business transacted in the city at that time [illegible] and we might say does not now, furnish sufficient inducement for the publication of three daily newspapers. However, by [illegible] attention to our business, careful and judicious management, and constant attention to the general wants and desires of our citizens we now thankfully acknowledge that we have been favored with patronage even greater than our expectations and have realized sufficient income to keep us above water and beyond the fear of drowning, or ditto.

In this we recognise the fact that the course pursued by the DAILY OREGONIAN politically, locally, and as a medium of general intelligence, has met the approbation of the people of this city and surrounding country, and this encouragement nerves us to hold firm to our glorious principles and put forth still greater efforts to supply the wants and meet the expectations of our patrons and friends. Portland to day is far in advance of what Portland was eighteen months ago. The future of this city is bright and clear, with a manifest destiny irresistibly tending upward and onward until she shall have reached a position in wealth and influence second to no other city on the Pacific Coast; and while Portland is thus growing in magnitude and power, it shall be our determination to keep pace with the times and advance and improve with proportionate rapidity and certainty.

The DAILY OREGONIAN has a much a larger circulation than any other daily in the State, and we further affirm that it is the only daily paper in the city whose status can be clearly defined and whose foundation is firm and secure. We would still further call the attention of the public to the fact that the DAILY OREGONIAN furnishes more reading matter—a better selection of news—foreign, domestic, market, marine and mining reports, local items and choice selections of literature, arts and sciences, than any other daily newspaper in the State; and by the present enlargement we shall be enabled to furnish our patrons with a still greater amount. Our city circulation is much greater than that of any other paper, while we send nearly twice the number abroad to other locations, and in this connection we desire to return our sincere thanks to our excellent Agent at the Dalles for his energy and attention in our behalf by which he has increased the circulation of the DAILY OREGONIAN in that city to one hundred and one. Also, we return our thanks to our Agents at Oregon City, Salem, Albany, Corvallis, Eugene City, Vancouver, Olympia, Steilacoom, Walla Walla, Lewiston, and the mining regions of the North and East, for the goodly number of subscribers obtained in each of those places and which are rapidly on the increase.

Our facilities for furnishing a first class newspaper cannot be excelled, and our advantages for obtaining the latest, most reliable and important news from all parts of the country are in every way superior. We have at great cost, procured one of "Hoe's Patent Power Presses," of large size and latest pattern, with which we can strike off a very large edition in a very short space of time, thus enabling us to wait for the very latest news. Our printing material is of the best quality, and we can further say that the mechanical appearance of our paper will compare favorably with any newspaper in America. Need we say more to convince the merchants, traders, and general advertising patrons of the country, that the DAILY OREGONIAN presents greater inducements for advertising patronage than any other paper in the State, and that as a newspaper it cannot be excelled.

From Florence City.

We have been permitted to make the following extract from a private letter written by a gentleman in Florence City, dated July 21st 1862, to a gentleman of this city. In speaking of the general state of affairs he says:

"All who are not engaged in some paying business will take themselves off for home or some other locality. A good many are going to Powder and John Day's rivers and others to Lower Salmon to work bars that are found to contain gold to some extent, whether in paying quantities or not remains to be determined. A goodly number are out prospecting up Salmon and over Salmon, some in pursuit of placer diggings, whilst others are turning their attention to quartz, or mining gold and silver. I feel certain that along way up the Salmon there exists very rich quartz leads. The story of Terwilliger['s] [illegible] is a miserable humbug, or in other words, it was a lie made out of whole cloth. Messrs. Walker, Riddles, Shaller and a number of others are out on the Pyatte river at Clakus in search of the precious metal. A [illegible] person who has just returned from this party informs me that he saw some of the most beautiful valleys and lakes in the country. The valleys are filled with game of all kinds and the lakes contain an abundance of trout and other excellent fish. He thinks they will probably find gold [illegible] further east and south.

Unless a man is fortunate in finding or buying a claim, it does not pay to [illegible] here. The water is becoming scarce [illegible] mining can be done except on the ravines and creeks. A ditch for water is [illegible] constructed, but it will probably be some time before it will supply the miners with the needful element. The weather is [illegible] and disagreeable, and whether we are to have any summer in this elevated region is [illegible] a question which appears to [illegible]. I suppose we are [illegible] 12,000 feet above the level of the sea, and the consequence is that but little warmth is ever seen or felt. At the present th[illegible] plainly visible, surrounding us, and within 10 or 20 miles.

This is the greatest place for shooting and cutting or making [illegible] at the same [illegible] was [illegible]. However there is not much danger [illegible] I have but a few shots [illegible] tended to do any during and to me it appears very unfortunate that such should be the case for as a general thing, the parties who engage in such sport could be well spared by the community at large."

From our Salmon River Correspondent.

LETTER No. XI.

[illegible] July 22 1862.

[illegible]

This question is frequently asked and discussed here and the general sentiment seems that the Government should make a new treaty and remove the Indians to another Reservation. This measure should be [illegible] early day in justice both to the whites and Indians. [illegible] treaty [illegible] rights [illegible]. The [illegible] is stronger [illegible] parchment. [illegible] towns, and [illegible] settlement of a new country.

[illegible]

The Nez Perces are not inclined to making another treaty. They say that they made one with the Government and it was four years before the Government [illegible] having been that length of time between the making and ratification of the treaty. They also say that they then made another treaty with the whites permitting them to go to the gold fields on condition that they travel on the North side of Clearwater. But the whites pay no attention to this condition. They say the whites told them "fire ships" could go no higher than where Lewiston stands and that they must put up a house there to put the goods in from the boats, that they consented, but in place of one they have put up hundreds; that they are cutting all the good timber along the streams, destroying their pastures and in violation of the treaty introducing liquors, and ruining their people. So they say "Why make another treaty when none of the old ones are observed?" The Indian has the better of the argument perhaps; but let the argument stand as it may, it is clear enough that some disposition should be made of the Reservation at an early day.

THE INDIAN POLICY OF THE GOVERNMENT A FAILURE.

The Pilgrims on landing at Plymouth found a Continent at their feet rich in lakes and rivers, mountains and valleys, soil and climate, and in all that was requisite to the happy habitation of man. Savage tribes roamed over more or less of this fair heritage for fishing or hunting. The boldness of the settlers necessitated treaties and purchases from the Indians, and a policy originating in our weakness has been continued in our strength. The Government has recognized the right of soil in the savage and treated with him and the philanthropist and Christian looked upon the savage tribes as wards committed to their care by Providence, to be civilized and Christianized. 'Twas a beautiful faith and a grand dream, but the Government blundered in recognizing in wild, roaming savages any such rights to the soil as were conceded to them. The earth was made to be tilled, and if to its settlement and cultivation the fish should disappear from the creeks or the game from the forests, they are incidents to civilization for which no savage tribe could claim compensation. The Government proposed to teach the Indians the arts of husbandry, and provided by her treaties, plows, wagons, teams, blacksmith shops, farmers, laborers, and all the appliances and implements of the husbandman. But the scythe hangs unused at the Agency, the axe lies unhelved, and the plow-share rusts by the door. The Indian still dries his salmon on the streams—still digs the camas root from the prairie—still resorts to the buffalo country, and furiously rides his pony after the fleeting game, and when the toils of the chase are over, in his mat constructed hut throws himself down to rest on the ground covered with skins and furs. The school house opens its doors to him, but he despises letters. In the varied book that Nature spreads out before him he learns his lessons and drinks his poetry from the firmament when sentinel stars keep watch in the night. The Missionary has gone to him, but whatever else the Bible may possess, it has borne on its wings no healing to the hut of the Indian. But with an untold [illegible] and dreamy faith he looks for hunting grounds in the Spirit Land—where the streams will more abound in fish and the woods in game.

The Government has expended millions in its work, but civilization has brought to the Indian only its vices, and the labors of the philanthropist and Christian are failures in the largest sense of the word. The purpose of the red man's creation in the economy of Nature is well nigh accomplished and no human hand can avert his early extermination from the face of the earth. Silent but irresistible the purposes of Providence take their way through the ages and across the line of their march treaties are but [illegible] and the plans of [illegible] of [illegible] in the [illegible]

The Eastern News

Our dispatches from the East reach to the 26th of July. The intelligence is not of much importance. From North Alabama we have reports of guerrilla depredations. At Vicksburg the status is unchanged. The Arkansas remains under the protection of the batteries undergoing repairs. At Memphis, the work of separating the sheep from the goats proceeds satisfactorily, the sheep remaining under the shadow of the oath, and the goats being driven to pasture in the [illegible] Dixie. [illegible] law, liberty and humanity. At St. Louis they have had a grand British excitement [illegible] In Baltimore the Secessionists in the City Council have been forced to [illegible] Baltimore has become moderately loyal [illegible] Charleston [illegible] cherishing [illegible] of "Old Glory" [illegible] expectation of the [illegible] already hung. Where is Palmerston? From Virginia we receive [illegible]. All the sailing transports that have been lying in the James near James Island have dropped down to Hampton Roads, we presume, to get out of reach of shot and shell. McClellan has doubtless received all the troops he requires, and the powerful fleet commanded by the Old Cat Welles, is ready for action. Lee has made his attack and failed. Now it is McClellan's turn. Jackson and Ewell with thirty thousand men occupy the line of the Virginia Central railroad from Gordonsville, watching Pope's case of the mountains and Sigel who commands in the valley. [illegible] Supposing the Capital to be secure under the eye of Halleck and Sigel [illegible] twenty five thousand men [illegible] against Richmond [illegible] the Government has massed a sufficient force in Virginia and after the hard [illegible] would be [illegible] The nation is in a condition of painful expectancy. Foreign powers hold the sword of intervention suspended by a chain. The destiny of the Republic is in the balance. If when the clouds of battle are swept from the field we behold the old flag floating in triumph, the Southern Confederacy will be a thing of the past. If we fail now—why then, we must follow the noble example of the French nation when menaced by the combined monarchs of Europe, [illegible] all former uprising by a monster rally of the people, and, if necessary, grapple with the world in defense of democratic institutions. But we shall not fail.—Sacramento Union 28th July.

The Daily Oregonian.

CITY.

The MORNING OREGONIAN has a larger SUBSCRIPTION LIST than any other Daily published in this City.

THE DAILY OREGONIAN may be had at the Franklin Book store, and at Charles Barrett's, Front street.

Pleasant.—How pleasant and agreeable it is to find an easy chair and take a cool comfortable seat in a cool shade erected upon the bank and reaching over the water's edge of the beautiful, quiet and majestic Willamette, hoist your heels upon the banisters in true American style, gracefully and elegantly puff your Havana and knowingly discuss the various topics of the day with entire self complacency and unquestionable ability. 'Tis here you can truly feel the flattering tingle of loyal blood which courses the veins of high-toned gentlemen and enjoy the inspiration of manly pride which is only experienced by noble minds. Ah, the poor, honest laborer knows but little of such pleasures, hence we must be excused from reporting farther upon this subject.

Dangerous.—The attention of our energetic Street Commissioner is respectfully called to a very dangerous hole on the corner of Front and Taylor streets, which has doubtless escaped his attention. This place needs repairing. And in this connection we take pleasure in saying that the improvement of our streets has progressed considerably, and hopes are entertained that ere many months roll round, the streets of Portland will present more the appearance of a decent city.

Express Messages.—Mossman & Co. will dispatch a messenger from Portland on Monday, August 11th, for the purpose of meeting the incoming emigration to Oregon and Washington Territory. The messenger will carry letters and papers on the most reasonable terms, and all those who wish to communicate with their friends can have an opportunity to do so. Office at Postoffice building, Front street.

Willamette Theatre.—The Willamette Theatre was crowded Saturday night to witness the performance of the Bell & Potter troupe, and judging from the frequent applause, every one was well pleased with the evening's entertainment. The Pride of the Market was well played, better than usual, and the laughable burlesque operatic dramatical tragedy of Shylock received frequent enthusiastic applause. Mr. John Wood fully met the expectations of the audience, and acquitted himself with much credit. Miss Belle Divine and Miss Virginia Lawrence sustained their respective pieces very well, and the singing of Miss Belle Divine was indeed sweet and melodious. Miss Virginia also sang quite well, fully sustaining her position as Portland's favorite. Mr. Harry Taylor, Max Irwin, Johnny Collins, Thayer, and last, though not least, Miss Clara Howard, each and all performed their respective characters admirably and deserve much praise.

Postage Stamps.—We take pleasure in informing the public that the long looked-for postage stamps have at last arrived at the Post office in this city, and that Mr. H. W. Davis, or his Deputy, will take great pleasure in furnishing them to any one who may properly call for the same.

About Time.—What has become of the Golden Age that was to have been started at Lewiston? We begin to imagine that the time for its appearance has fully arrived. We hope Mr. Gould has not met with any sad [illegible] but that his Golden Age will yet "pan out" largely.

Not Found.—The body of the unfortunate young man, William Weatherford, who was drowned on Friday afternoon, has not yet been found. Parties were engaged all the forenoon of Saturday firing cannon and searching for the body, but without success. We sincerely hope that the remains may yet be found and receive the last sad rites that fond parents and friends can bestow upon a favorite son and beloved companion.

The weather for the past week has been quite warm and dry. A little rain now would be quite acceptable, just sufficient to allay the dust—no more.

Fast.—The Wilson G. Hunt arrived Saturday afternoon from the Cascades at about half past two o'clock. This we call decidedly fast time.

Nice Fixtures.—We have seen our friend F. W. Bell, who has recently rented the splendid bar at the Pioneer Hotel, and can truthfully say that a nicer place is not to be found in the city. The best of pure wines, liquors, cigars, &c., &c., can be obtained at this bar, done up in the latest and most fashionable style.

FAMILY

SEWING MACHINES

ARE UNEQUALLED BY ANY FOR

BEAUTY AND SIMPLICITY OF CONSTRUCTION

—AND—

Efficiency in Working.

A GOOD SEWING MACHINE

SHOULD BE WELL MADE, simple in its construction, and easily kept in order; should make a TIGHT LOCK-STITCH, alike on both sides of the material, and should sew any and all materials that can be sewed.

It should be able to use cotton, thread, or silk, directly from the spool, and to sew from coarse to fine, and from thick to thin, with rapidity, and without changing the tension. It should also be able to make the tension greater or less, on both the under and upper threads, and with uniformity; and should have a Straight needle, curved ones being liable to break.

The needle should have perpendicular motion—this is absolutely necessary for heavy work.

It should be able to bind with a binder, hem with a hemmer; should stitch, fell, run and gather; and should be always ready to work.

It should be capable of using the same size thread on both sides of the work, and of using different colored thread or silk, above or below, to correspond with any two colors of cloth to be united.

It should be able to make a long or short stitch, and to fasten off the seam, and commence sewing tightly at the first stitch and to run easily, and make but little noise.

It should have a wheel-feed; no others are in constant contact with the work.

It should not be liable to get out of order; neither should it require a screw-driver or wrench to set the needle.

It should not be liable to oil the operator's dress.

It should not form a ridge on the under side, nor ravel.

10.001 SCHOOL BOOKS.—Thompson's, Sanders', Davis', Smith's, Pierce's National, Brown's, Mitchell's, too numerous to mention, at CHARLES BARRETT'S.

Invention Worthy of the 20th Century.

The editor of this journal has underway a plan and an apparatus that will revolutionize the civilized world, and trusts that he will add another medium to the score of world-renowned and beneficial discoveries for the general diffusion of education and the progress of science and art — He has conceived a system for printing that will at once do away with costly type and type foundries, presses and press makers, together with ink and devils! He does not claim to have discovered new agents or powers by which he may accomplish this mode of printing—employing merely, the means already well defined and applied to many useful and indispensable institutions. The labor of hundreds of men in such establishments as the London Times can thereby be reduced to one-tenth that number of the compositors. Such a saving to a journal like the Times would be beyond calculation. The human race could be furnished with reading matter for one-tenth the present cost—at every hour of the day, and with an edition of from one thousand to one hundred thousand! The combination of the principles and appliances of the leading features are already well established in science: merely the apparatus by which he effects the multiplicity of copies in one that has cost him some thought as to its ready application — The space required by such papers as the London Times, New York Herald and Tribune, who employ from one hundred to one hundred and fifty cases and stands, with a proportionate number of imposing stones, is greatly reduced; and the space thus saved may be used for the apparatus and operators, and, if need be, the editorial chairs.

The speeches and arguments of senators and representatives and "orators of the day," can be transmitted in printed form as soon as uttered, and should the great telegraph encircle the earth, as will ultimately be the case, they may be read and perused in every circle in which civilization predominates. Thus the affairs of nations discussed at one moment in the Halls of Congress or in Parliament, may be read thousands of miles away in the remotest corner of the globe, the the next moment or hour! Reporters and photographers need no longer puzzle their wits with quaint characters for representing ideas and sentences, or the trouble of rewriting the same for the press. The result and advantage, gained by such a mode of printing presents too many new features which cannot now know of, or grasp with our minds. Autographs, bills, abstracts, likenesses, official and legal documents, may be transmitted in the midst of the reading matter, without the necessity of wood engraving or similar works of art.

The editor is now busily employed in perfecting his apparatus, and of the results due notice will be given.—Mining and Scientific Press

THURLOW WEED AND THE PRINTERS.—The printers of New York, under the auspices of the New York Typographical Society, are to give Thurlow Weed a reception at their rooms, in [illegible] street on Tuesday. He accepted the invitation. He will feel more honored by this [illegible] than if Congress had tendered him the hospitality of the nation, and thanked him in a glowing eulogy for the services rendered to his country abroad. If he has a weakness for anything, it is a sort of vehement admiration for the craft. A "poor printer" could honeyfugle him much easier than a New York pocket-book stuffer could a greenhorn from the country. No unfortunate typo ever left his premises without a "silver quad in his stick." So strong is his attachment to old friends of the craft, we verily believe if he heard of an old "jour" in Oregon who worked at the "case" with him fifty years ago, he would make a journey out there, on purpose to see him. He will soon be one of the oldest members of the "art preservative of all arts."—Albany Knickerbocker.

SHEEP-SHEARING FESTIVAL.—What has been called a "sheep-shearing festival" was held on the 6th of May at the cattle-grounds of the Agricultural Society at Marysville. Over sixty fine French Merino sheep, from the Brannan [illegible], were on the ground, and eight shearers presented themselves. The quickest shearer was L. Scott, who sheared nine sheep in 5 hours, 50 minutes. But, says the Marysville Appeal, as the Committee were instructed to consider the handling of the sheep, amount of injury done to the animal, the cleanliness of the clip, as well as the time consumed, they awarded the premiums —first, $10, to T. Galbraith, (who sheared eight sheep in 6 hours, 25 minutes,) and the second, $5, to L. C. Hodge, (five sheep in 6 hours, 25 minutes.) The average weight of the fleeces may be judged from the fact that the aggregate weight of the clip of 44 year-old ewes was 674½ pounds—the sheep weighing 4,726½ lbs before being sheared; the average clip was 15 lbs 5¼ ounces. The average weight of the clip from 18 bucks, of which all but 3 were year olds, was 451½ lbs, the average clip being 25 lbs and 1½ ozs each, the weight of the sheep before shearing being 2,660½ lbs.

OLD AGE.—You will look long to find a better description of extreme age than the following, which is taken from a play written in the year 1680, by Nathaniel Lee:

"Of no distemper, of no blast he died,
But fell like autumn fruit that mellowed long—
Even wondered at because he dropped no sooner.
Fate seemed to wind him up for fourscore years,
Yet freshly ran he on ten winters more,
Till like a clock, worn out with eating time
The wheels of weary life at last stood still

NATIONAL DEBT.—The Washington correspondent of the San Francisco Bulletin says that that the national debt, as officially laid before Congress on the 20th day of May, amounted to $491,448,984.

GENERAL POPE TAKES RIGID MEASURES.—General Pope has ordered the Commanders of his Department to arrest all disloyal male citizens within the lines or within reach.—Such as are willing to take the oath and furnish security for its observance shall be allowed to remain at their homes. Those refusing are to be conducted south beyond the extreme pickets of the army, and notified that if found again inside the lines or at any point in reach they will be considered as spies and subjected to the extreme rigor of military law. Any person having taken the oath and afterwards violating it shall be shot and his property seized and applied to the public use. No communication whatever will be allowed with persons inside the enemy's lines, except through the military authorities and in the manner specified by military law. Any persons carrying letters or messages in any other way will be considered and treated as spies.

THE MONITOR FOR CALIFORNIA.—Referring to the contract for building an iron clad gun boat for the defense of the harbor of San Francisco, the Washington correspondent of the Bulletin says:

A contract has been made with Peter Donahue of San Francisco and [illegible] of New York (who built your sectional floating docks) for the immediate construction of an iron gunboat or floating battery of the Monitor pattern but of larger size, similar, in fact, to the large one now building by [illegible] in New York. The price paid, I understand, is about $640,000, and the work is to be completed in six months. Ryan, formerly State Senator from Humboldt, is understood to be interested in the contract, which was obtained by the influence of Senators McDougall and Latham."

INTERESTING DISCOVERY.—The Jewish Chronicle says, that the foundation of the inner wall of Jerusalem, referred to in [illegible] under the name of rampart, and also Isaiah xxii, 11, where the two walls are spoken of, has lately beed discovered. As far it is laid bare, consists of very large stones, and the solid masonry is just the same as that of the western wall of the Temple. It is about four yards distant from the present wall. On the same plot of ground was also discovered a very large and equally ancient cistern, thirty six yards long by nine and a half wide and fourteen deep.

WELL SECURED.—An exchange recalls the fact that the law authorizing the issue of United States Demand Notes, also provides that they may be at any time funded in bonds of the United States, bearing an interest of six per cent, payable in specie. Should Demand Notes become depreciated, the holders will immediately invest them in United States sixes at par, and thus secure a safe investment, paying an annual interest of six per cent. This is an additional reason why they can never become so depreciated as to be quoted at a discount when compared with other paper currency.

GEN. BURNSIDE.—The Southerners have a great respect for Gen. Burnside. They assert that he has acted not only as a major general but also as spy and scout. The people of Norfolk say that at one time he came into the city disguised as a fisherman, and at another time in the simple garb of a truck farmer, by which he traversed the city, observed the position and strength of its defenses, and obtained important information for the Government, while trying to sell fish and potatoes to Gen Huger, and distinguished citizens.

THE HEIGHT OF IMPUDENCE.—The epithet "infamous" applied to General Butler's order —which has practically resulted in not the slightest personal harm to anybody whatever —by Lord Palmerston, the premier under whom rebel sepoys were blown by hundreds from the mouths of cannon, and captured Pekin was consigned to a three day sack of English soldiers.

A MONITOR FOR CALIFORNIA.—The San Francisco Herald has seen a private letter from Washington, which states that the Secretary of the Navy has entered into a contract with the Donahues of that city for the construction of an iron clad vessel for the protection of that harbor.

True hope is based on the energy of character. A strong mind always hopes, and has always cause to hope, because it knows the mutability of human affairs, and how slight a circumstance may change the whole course of events.

Woman is like ivy—the more you are ruined, the closer she clings to you. An old bachelor adds—"Ivy is like woman—the closer it clings to you the more you are ruined.

An Irishman, when applying for relief, and being told to work for his living, replied, "If I had all the work in the world, I couldn't do it."

THE amount of treasure exported from California so far this year is $21,239,892.

Address DR. L. J. CZAPKAY, San Francisco.

Of all diseases the first great cause
Springs from neglect of Nature's laws.

To the Afflicted!

Suffer not when a cure is guaranteed in all stages of secret disease—Self Abuse, Nervous Debility, Syphilis in all its stages, Strictures, Gleet, Gravel, Diabetes, diseases of the Kidneys and Bladder, Mercurial Rheumatism, Scrofula, Pains in the Bones and Ankles, diseases of the Lungs, Throat, Nose and Eyes, Ulcers upon the Body or Limbs, Cancers, Dropsy, Epileptic Fits, St. Vitus Dance—and all diseases arising from a derangement of the sexual organs—such as Nervous Trembling, Loss of Memory, Loss of Power, General Weakness, Dimness of Vision, with peculiar spots appearing before the eyes, Loss of Sight, Wakefulness, Dyspepsia, Liver Disease, Eruptions upon the Face, Pains in the Back and Head, Female Irregularities—and all improper discharges of both sexes. It matters not from what cause the disease originated, however long standing, or obstinate the case, recovery is certain and in a shorter time than a permanent cure can be effected by any other treatment, even after the disease has baffled the skill of eminent physicians and resisted all their means of cure. The medicines prescribed are pleasant without odor, entirely vegetable, causing no sickness and free from mercury or balsam. During fifteen years of practice in Europe, the Atlantic States and California, I have rescued from the jaws of death many thousands who, in the last stages of the above mentioned diseases had been given up to die by their physicians, which warrants me in promising to the afflicted, who may place themselves under my care, a speedy and permanent cure. Private diseases are the greatest enemies to health, as they are the first cause of consumption, scrofula and many other diseases, and should be a terror to the human family. A permanent cure is scarcely ever effected —a majority of cases falling into the hands of incompetent persons, who not only fail to cure the disease, but ruin the constitution, filling the system with mercury, which with the disease hastens the sufferer into a rapid consumption. But should the disease and the treatment not cause death speedily, and the victim marries, the disease is entailed upon the children, who are born with feeble constitutions, and the current of life corrupted by a virus which betrays itself in scrofula, tetter, ulcers, eruptions and other affections of the skin, eyes, throat and lungs entailing upon them a brief existence of suffering and consigning them to an early grave.

Self abuse is another formidable enemy to health, for nothing else in the dread catalogue of human diseases causes so destructive a drain upon the system—drawing its thousands of victims through a few years of suffering down to an untimely grave. It destroys the nervous system, rapidly wastes away the energies of life, causes mental derangement, prevents the proper development of the system, disqualifies for marriage, society, business and all earthly happiness, and leaves the sufferer wrecked in body and mind, predisposed to consumption and a train of evils more to be dreaded than death itself. With the fullest confidence I assure the unfortunate victims of self abuse that a permanent and speedy cure can be effected, and with the abandonment of ruinous practices, my patients can be restored to robust, vigorous health.

The afflicted are reminded that my Institute is conducted on principles established by fifteen years of practice and sanctioned by thousands of the most remarkable cures.— Medicines with full directions sent to any part of the State, Oregon and Washington Territory, by patients communicating their symptoms by letter.

All business correspondence strictly confidential. Address DR. L. J. CZAPKAY'S Medical Institute, Sacramento street, below Montgomery, opposite Pacific Mail Steamship Co.'s Office, San Francisco.

MARYSVILLE, [illegible] 1856.

[illegible]

[illegible] strictly and in fact thought you would be able to cure me perfectly, but thought you might be able to do something to ease the pain in my back and head and strengthen my [illegible] everything. Now that you know what I expected you may judge of my satisfaction at my complete recovery from those symptoms and the removal of those sores and blotches from my skin and the ulcers [illegible] my throat and the entire expurgation of those conditions which you said were principally the cause of my sickness. I can hardly tell you which is the greatest, my joy or my surprise, for except not having fully got my strength I feel as well as any man can feel.

Enclosed I send you twenty dollars over your charge, and think myself cheaply cured. If you think anybody will be benefited by [illegible] in the newspapers. Believe me gratefully yours, THOMAS HAYDEN

Thankfulness is the incentive to gratitude.

CERTIFICATE.—Prompted by an honest desire of my heart, I wish to lay before the public a case which deserves notoriety, not only as an act of scientific skill, but that of humanity also. About two years ago I suddenly and from causes unknown to me was seized with a fit of epilepsy, which, owing to my inability to meet the expenses consequent upon a thorough medical treatment, and the discouragement which I met with in attempting it soon became such (I was then led to believe) as to defy the skill of any physician. I was frequently while in pursuit of my calling, thrown down to the ground without the slightest warning; and although insensible to the agonies I yet despised the miseries of my life and soon learned to look upon those who would render assistance or shelter me from danger as enemies who sought to prolong the existence of my miseries. While in this state, and having, previous to my affliction, tasted the sweets of life, I once more was induced to attempt seeking aid of a physician, and by recommendation called upon Dr. L. J. Czapkay. I told him of my circumstances, and of my inability to reward him for his services, regardless of which, however, he at once undertook my case and with the blessing of God, I was once more restored to perfect health. Unable to reward him for the boon which I enjoy at present, and yet conscious of my indebtedness, I consider it due to myself and all afflicted, to make the case public, in order that those in need of medical advice may find a physician in whom every confidence can be placed.

Dr. L. J. CZAPKAY'S Private Medical and Surgical Institute is on Sacramento st., below Montgomery, opposite the Pacific Mail Steamship Co.'s Office, San Francisco. The Doctor offers free consultation, and asks no remuneration unless he effects a cure. ☞ Office hours from 9 a. m. to 9 p. m.

SPERMATORRHOEA, or LOCAL WEAKNESS, nervous debility, lassitude, low spirits, weakness of the limbs and back, indisposition and incapability for labor and study, dullness of apprehension, loss of memory, aversion to society, love of solitude, [illegible] involuntary discharges, pains in the side, affections of the eyes, pimples on the face, sexual and other infirmities in man, are cured by the justly celebrated physician and surgeon Dr. L. J. Czapkay. His method of curing diseases is new, (unknown to others,) and hence the great success.

All consultations by letter or otherwise free.

Invention Worthy of the 20th Century.

The editor of this journal has underway a plan and an apparatus that will revolutionize the civilized world, and trusts that he will add another medium to the score of world-renowned and beneficial discoveries for the general diffusion of education and the progress of science and art.—He has conceived a system for printing that will at once do away with costly type and type foundries, presses and press makers, together with ink and devils! He does not claim to have discovered new agents or powers by which he may accomplish this mode of printing—employing, merely, the means already well defined and applied to many useful and indispensable institutions. The labor of hundreds of men in such establishments as the London Times can thereby be reduced to one-tenth that number of the compositors. Such a saving to a journal like the Times would be beyond calculation. The human race could be furnished with reading matter for one-tenth the present cost—at every hour of the day, and with an edition of from one thousand to one hundred thousand! The combination of the principles and appliances of the leading features are already well established in science; merely the apparatus by which he effects the multiplicity of copies in one that has cost him some thought as to its ready application.—The space required by such papers as the London Times New York Herald and Tribune, who employ from one hundred to one hundred and fifty cases and stands, with a proportionate number of imposing stones, is greatly reduced; and the space thus saved may be used for the apparatus and operators, and, if need be, the editorial chairs.

The speeches and arguments of senators and representatives and "orators of the day," can be transmitted, in printed form as soon as uttered, and should the great telegraph encircle the earth, as will ultimately be the case, they may be read and perused in every circle in which civilization predominates. Thus the affairs of nations discussed at one moment in the Halls of Congress or in Parliament, may be read thousands of miles away in the remotest corner of the globe, the the next moment or hour! Reporters and phonographers need no longer puzzle their wits with quaint characters for representing ideas and sentences, or the trouble of rewriting the same for the press. The result and advantage, gained by such a mode of printing presents too many new features which cannot now know of, or grasp with our minds. Autographs, bills, abstracts, likenesses, official and legal documents, may be transmitted in the midst of the reading matter, without the necessity of wood engraving or similar works of art.

The editor is now busily employed in perfecting his apparatus, and of the results due notice will be given.—Mining and Scientific Press.

Thurlow Weed and the Printers.—The printers of New York, under the auspices of the New York Typographical Society, are to give Thurlow Weed a reception at their rooms, in Chamber street on Tuesday. He accepted the invitation. He will feel more honored by this ovation than if Congress had tendered him the hospitalities of the nation, and thanked him in a glowing eulogy for the services rendered to his country abroad. If he has a weakness for anything, it is a sort of vehement admiration for the craft. A "poor printer" could honeyfugle him much easier than a New York pocket-book stuffer could a greenhorn from the country. No unfortunate typo ever left his premises without a "silver quad in his stick." So strong is his attachment to old friends of the craft, we verily believe if he heard of an old "jour" in Oregon who worked at the "case" with him fifty years ago, he would make a journey out there on purpose to see him. He will soon be one of the oldest members of the "art preservative of all arts."—Albany Knickerbocker.

Sheep-Shearing Festival.—What has been called a "sheep-shearing festival" was held on the 6th of May at the cattle-grounds of the Agricultural Society at Marysville. Over sixty fine French Merino sheep, from the Brannan Ranch, were on the ground, and eight shearers presented themselves. The quickest shearer was L. Scott, who sheared nine sheep in 5 hours, 50 minutes. But, says the Marysville Appeal, as the Committee were instructed to consider the handling of the sheep, amount of injury done to the animal, the cleanliness of the clip, as well as the time consumed, they awarded the premiums—first, $10, to T. Galbraith, (who sheared eight sheep in 6 hours, 25 minutes,) and the second, $5, to L. C. Hodge, (five sheep in 6 hours, 25 minutes.) The average weight of the fleeces may be judged from the fact that the aggregate weight of the clip of 44 year-old ewes was 674½ pounds—the sheep weighing 4,720¼ lbs before being sheared; the average clip was 15 lbs 5¼ ounces. The average weight of the clip from 18 bucks, of which all but 3 were year olds, was 451½ lbs, the average clip being 25 lbs and 11 ozs each, the weight of the sheep before shearing being 2,660½ lbs.

Old Age.—You will look long to find a better description of extreme age than the following, which is taken from a play written in the year 1680, by Nathaniel Lee:

> "Of no distemper, of no blast he died,
> But fell like autumn fruit that mellowed long—
> Even wondered at because he dropped no sooner;
> Fate seemed to wind him for fourscore years,
> Yet freshly ran he on ten winters more,
> Till, like a clock, worn out with eating time,
> The wheels of weary life at last stood still."

National Debt.—The Washington correspondent of the San Francisco Bulletin says that that the national debt, as officially laid before Congress on the 29th day of May, amounted to $491,448,984.

General Pope Takes Right Measures.—General Pope has ordered the Commanders of his Department to arrest all disloyal male citizens within the lines, or within reach.—Such as are willing to take the oath and furnish security for its observance shall be allowed to remain at their homes. Those refusing are to be conducted south beyond the extreme pickets of the army, and notified that if found again inside the lines, or at any point in reach, they will be considered as spies, and subjected to the extreme rigor of military law. Any person having taking the oath, and afterwards violating it, shall be shot, and his property seized and applied to the public use. No communication whatever will be allowed with persons inside the enemy's lines, except through the military authorities, and in the manner specified by military law. Any persons carrying letters or messages in any other way will be considered and treated as spies.

The Monitor for California. Referring to the contract for building an iron clad gunboat for the defense of the harbor of San Francisco, the Washington correspondent of the Bulletin says:

A contract has been made with Peter Donahue of San Francisco, and Secor of New York, (who built your sectional floating docks), for the immediate construction in California of an iron gunboat, or floating battery of the Monitor pattern, but of larger size similar, in fact, to the large one now building by Secor in New York. The price paid, I understand, is about $540,000, and the work to be completed in six months. Ryan, formerly State Senator from Humboldt, is understood to be interested in the contract, which was obtained by the influence of Senators McDougall and Latham."

Interesting Discovery.—The Jewish Chronicle says, that the foundation of the inner wall of Jerusalem, referred in Lam. ii, 8, under the name of rampart, and also Isaiah xxii, 11, where the two walls are spoken of, has lately been discovered. As far as it is laid bare, consists of very large stones, and the solid masonry is just the same as that of the western wall of the Temple. It is about four yards distant from the present wall. On the same plot of ground was also discovered a very large and equally ancient cistern, thirty six yards long by nine and a half wide and fourteen deep.

Well Secured.—An exchange recalls the fact that the law authorizing the issue of United States Demand Notes, also provides that they may be at any time funded in bonds of the United States, bearing an interest of six per cent., payable in specie. Should Demand Notes become depreciated, the holders will immediately invest them in United States sixes at par, and thus secure a safe investment, paying an annual interest of six per cent. This is an additional reason why they can never become so depreciated as to be quoted at a discount when compared with other paper currency.

Gen. Burnside.—The Southerners have a great respect for Gen. Burnside. They assert that he has acted not only as a major general but also as spy and scout. The people of Norfolk say that at one time he came into the city disguised as a fisherman, and at another time in the simple garb of a truck farmer, by which he traversed the city, observed the position and strength of its defenses, and obtained important information for the Government, while trying to sell fish and potatoes to Gen. Huger, and distinguished citizens.

The Height of Impudence.—The epithet "infamous" applied to General Butler's order—which has practically resulted in not the slightest personal harm to anybody whatever—by Lord Palmerston, the premier under whom rebel sepoys were blown by hundreds from the mouths of cannon, and captured Pekin was consigned to a three day sack of English soldiers.

A Monitor for California.—The San Francisco Herald has seen a private letter from Washington, which states that the Secretary of the Navy has entered into a contract with the Donahues of that city for the construction of an iron-clad vessel for the protection of that harbor.

True hope is based on the energy of character. A strong mind always hopes, and has always cause to hope, because it knows the mutability of human affairs, and how slight a circumstance may change the whole course of events.

Woman is like ivy—the more you are ruined, the closer she clings to you. An old bachelor adds—"Ivy is like woman—the closer it clings to you the more you are ruined."

An Irishman, when applying for relief, and being told to work for his living, replied, "If I had all the work in the world, I couldn't do it."

The amount of treasure exported from California so far this year is $21,239,892.

DR. L. J. CZAPKAY'S
Private Medical & Surgical Institute,
SACRAMENTO STREET, BELOW MONTGOMERY,
Opposite Pacific Mail Steamship Company's Office, San Francisco.

ESTABLISHED IN 1854 FOR THE PERMANENT cure of all Chronic and Private Diseases, and the SUPPRESSION OF QUACKERY. Attending and Resident Physician, L. J. CZAPKAY, M. D., Late in the Hungarian Revolutionary War; Chief Physician to the 20th Regiment of Honveds; Chief Surgeon to the Military Hospital of Pesth, Hungary; the late Lecturer on Diseases of the Genito-Urinary Organs, and Diseases of Women and Children, and Honorary Member of the Philadelphia College of Medicine.
Particular attention paid to the treatment of diseases peculiar to Women and Children.
Office Hours—From 9 A. M. to 9 P. M.
Communications strictly confidential. Permanent cure guaranteed, or no pay. Consultations, by letter or otherwise, FREE.
Address, DR. L. J. CZAPKAY, San Francisco.

Of all diseases, the first great cause,
Springs from neglect of Nature's laws.

To the Afflicted:
Suffer not when a cure is guaranteed in all stages of secret diseases—Self-Abuse, Nervous Debility, Syphilis in all its stages, Strictures, Gleet, Gravel, Diabetes, diseases of the Kidneys and Bladder, Mercurial Rheumatism, Scrofula, Pains in the Bones and Ankles, diseases of the Lungs, Throat, Nose and Eyes, Ulcers upon the Body or Limbs, Cancers, Dropsy, Epileptic Fits, St. Vitus Dance—and all diseases arising from a derangement of the sexual organs—such as Nervous Trembling, Loss of Memory, Loss of Power, General Weakness, Dimness of Vision, with peculiar spots appearing before the eyes, Loss of Sight, Wakefulness, Dyspepsia, Liver Disease, Eruptions upon the Face, Pains in the Back and Head, Female Irregularities—and all improper discharges of both sexes. It matters not from what cause the disease originated, however long standing or obstinate the case, recovery is certain, and in a shorter time than a permanent cure can be effected by any other treatment, even after the disease has baffled the skill of eminent physicians, and resisted all their means of cure. The medicines prescribed are pleasant, without odor, entirely vegetable, causing no sickness, and free from mercury or balsam. During fifteen years of practice in Europe, the Atlantic States and California, I have rescued from the jaws of death many thousands, who, in the last stages of the above-mentioned diseases, had been given up to die by their physicians, which warrants me in promising to the afflicted, who may place themselves under my care, a speedy and permanent cure. Private diseases are the greatest enemies to health, as they are the first cause of consumption, scrofula, and many other diseases, and should be a terror to the human family. A permanent cure is scarcely ever effected—a majority of cases falling into the hands of incompetent persons, who not only fail to cure the disease, but ruin the constitution, filling the system with mercury, which, with the disease, hastens the suffer into a rapid consumption. But should the disease and the treatment not cause death speedily, and the victim marries, the disease is entailed upon the children, who are born with feeble constitutions, and the current of life corrupted by a virus which betrays itself in scrofula, tetter, ulcers, eruptions and other affections of the skin, eyes, throat and lungs, entailing upon them a brief existence of suffering, and consigning them to an early grave.
Self-abuse is another formidable enemy to health, for nothing else in the dread catalogue of human diseases causes so destructive a drain upon the system—drawing its thousands of victims through a few years of suffering down to an untimely grave. It destroys the nervous system, rapidly wastes away the energies of life, causes mental derangement, prevents the proper development of the system, disqualifies for marriage, society, business, and all earthly happiness, and leaves the sufferer wrecked in body and mind, predisposed to consumption and a train of evils more to be dreaded than death itself. With the fullest confidence I assure the unfortunate victims of self-abuse, that a permanent and speedy cure can be effected, and with the abandonment of ruinous practices, my patients can be restored to robust, vigorous health.
Irregularities, and all diseases of males and females, treated on principles established by fifteen years of practice and sanctioned by thousands of the most remarkable cures.—Medicines, with full directions, sent to any part of the State, Oregon and Washington Territory, by patients communicating their symptoms by letter.
All business correspondence strictly confidential. Address DR. L. J. CZAPKAY, Medical Institute, Sacramento street, below Montgomery, opposite Pacific Mail Steamship Co.'s office, San Francisco.

Remarkable Instance of Medical Relief
Below we publish the certificates of three of the sufferers from the pangs of disease, who, having recovered their former health, and impelled by gratitude, make known their cases and remedial agent, and their statements are authenticated by a Notary Public. The demands of society imperiously command their publicity, and we commend them to the attention of all afflicted:
Certificate.—The undersigned, desirous of acquainting those who may be unfortunate enough to be similarly afflicted, where a permanent relief of their sufferings may be obtained, feels it his duty to thus publicly express his most sincere gratitude to Dr. L. J. Czapkay, for the permanent recovery of his health. Borne down by the distressing symptoms incident to the vicious practices of uncontrolled passion in youth; depressed in body and mind, unable to perform even the most trifling duty imposed upon the ordinary avocations of life, I sought the advice of many physicians, who at first regarded my disease as of trifling importance; but, alas! after a few weeks, and in several instances, months, of their treatment, I found, to my unutterable horror, that instead of relief, my symptoms became more alarming in their torture; and being told by one, that my disease being principally confined to the brain, medicine would be of little consequence, I despaired of ever regaining my health, strength and energy; and as a last resort, and with but a faint hope, called upon Dr. Czapkay, who, after examining my case, prescribed some medicine which almost instantly relieved me of the dull pain and dizziness in my head. Encouraged by the result, I resolved to place myself immediately under his care, and by a strict obedience to all his directions and advice, my head became clear, and my ideas collected, the constant pain in my back and groins the weakness of my limbs, the nervous reaction of my whole body on the slightest alarm or excitement, the misanthropy and evil forebodings, the self-distrust and want of confidence in others, the incapability to study, and want of resolution, the frightful exciting, and at times pleasurable dreams at night, followed by involuntary discharges, have all disappeared, and in fact, in two months after having consulted the doctor, I felt as if inspired by a new life—that life which but a short time ago I contemplated to end by my own hand. With the view to guard the unfortunate from falling into the snares of incompetent quacks, I deem it my duty to offer this testimony to the merit and skill of Dr. Czapkay, and recommend him to all who may stand in need of medical advice, being assured by my own experience that once under his care a radical and permanent cure will be effected.
B. F. FILLMORE.
State of California, County of San Francisco.
Subscribed and sworn to before me, this seventh day of April, A. D. 1856. Signed
[L. S.] JOHN MIDDLETON, Notary Public.

Marysville, June 5th, 1855.
Dr. L. J. Czapkay, San Francisco—Sir: I have used the last of your medicine and do not think I shall need any more as I feel every well except that I have not entirely [illegible] my strength yet but I am well with the appetite I have. It is just three weeks, you may recollect, since I called at your institute with my complaint which was as I thought hardly entirely, and never thought you would be able to cure me perfectly, but thought you might be able to do something to ease the pain in my back and head, and strengthen my nerves, so that I would not get excited and tremble at everything. Now that you know what I expected, you may judge of my satisfaction at my complete recovery from those symptoms, and the removal of those sores and blotches from my skin, and the ulcers from my throat, and the entire stoppage of those emissions, which you said were principally the cause of my sickness. I can hardly tell you which is the greatest, my joy or my surprise, for except not having fully got my strength, I feel as well as any man can feel.
Enclosed I send you twenty dollars over your charge, and think myself cheaply cured. If you think anybody will be benefited, you may put this letter in the newspapers. Believe me gratefully yours, THOMAS HAYDEN.

Thankfulness is the incentive to gratitude.
Certificate.—Prompted by an honest desire of my heart, I wish to lay before the public a case which deserves commendation, not only as an act of scientific skill, but that of humanity also. About two years ago, I suddenly, and from causes unknown to me, was seized with a fit of epilepsy, which, owing to my inability to meet the expenses consequent upon a thorough medical treatment, and the discouragement which I met with on attempting it, soon became such (I was then led to believe) as to defy the skill of any physician. I was frequently, while in pursuit of my calling, thrown down to the ground without the slightest warning, and although insensible to the agonies, I yet despised the miseries of my life, and soon learned to look upon those who would render assistance or shelter me from danger as enemies who sought to prolong the existence of my miseries. While in this state, and having, previous to my affliction, tasted the sweets of life, I once more was induced to attempt seeking aid of a physician, and, by recommendation, called upon Dr. L. J. Czapkay. I told him of my circumstances, and of my inability to reward him for his services; regardless of which, however, he at once undertook my case, and with the blessing of God, I was once more restored to perfect health. Unable to reward him for the boon which I enjoy at present, and yet conscious of my indebtedness, I consider it due to myself and all afflicted, to make the case public, in order that those in need of medical advice may find a physician in whom every confidence can be placed.
[L. S.] MEYER YABLONSKY
State of California, county of San Francisco, ss. Subscribed and sworn to before me, this 1st day of August, A. D. 1856.
[L. S.] GILBERT A. GRANT, Notary Public.
Dr. L. J. CZAPKAY'S Private Medical and Surgical Institute is on Sacramento st., below Montgomery, opposite the Pacific Mail Steamship Co.'s Office, San Francisco. The Doctor offers free consultation, and asks no remuneration unless he effects a cure. Office hours from 9 a. m. to 9 p. m.

SPERMATORRHŒA, or LOCAL WEAKNESS, nervous debility, lassitude, low spirits, weakness of the limbs and back, indisposition and incapability for labor and study, dullness of apprehension, loss of memory, aversion to society, love of solitude, timidity, self-distrust, dizziness, [illegible] involuntary discharges, pains in the side, affections of the eyes, pimples on the face, sexual or other infirmities in man, are cured by the justly celebrated physician and surgeon, Dr. L. J. Czapkay. His method of curing diseases is new, (unknown to others,) and hence the great success.
All consultations, by letter or otherwise, free.
